Examiner.com says:

Talk about a clever amenity. The Shoreline Hotel Waikiki is opening an "Essential Oils" Lobby Bar in collaboration with Oahu-based Oil Miracles Hawaii in keeping with its holistic wellness theme. Designed to cure a headache, relieve muscle ached, as an allergy relief or a sleep aid, the new oil bar launches in July 2016. There will also be in-room selection of oils as a new VIP amenity. The products are blended for the tropical island life style with potions named Buggy Begone, Energize, Sleepytime, Muscle Relief, Vog Relief, Namaste, Sunburn Soother, Ditch the Itch & Allergies, and more,

Oil Miracles Hawaii was formulated from a mother's longing to help improve her daughter's health, and as a result she made a complete turnaround and prove the power of pure, 18 therapeutic essential oils which can be sampled and purchased at the front desk. Guests who book Shoreline's VIP rooms score free oils to use and take home such as the bestsellers Sleepytime spray - for relaxation - and Energize spray for a night on the town, The company was co-founded by Katra Cuskaden and Alison Lum, which is committed to providing all-natural alternatives to address a variety of health issues.

The contemporary-style Shoreline Hotel is just a six-minute walk to and from Waikiki Beach. It offers comfortable beach-inspired accommodations--some with private lanais others with ocean views). All rooms come with free WiFi, flat-screen TVs, iPod docks and coffeemakers. Some rooms are equipped with microwaves and mini fridges. There is a casual cafe and diner, a rooftop pool and of course complimentary beach towels. The hotel is located at 342 Seaside Avenue in Honolulu, phone:(808) 931-2444.
