There's no one way to mark Valentine's Day, even if you think the day requires roses and a box of chocolates. Here are some ideas that take you near and far — and are guaranteed to score creativity points with your Valentine. Enjoy!

For essential oil lovers

If essential mineral oils and pineapple iced tea sound like a soothing way to spend Valentine's Day, the Shoreline Hotel Waikiki in Honolulu has your number.

Not that a trip to Hawaii isn't romantic enough. With this hotel offer, you get a session on the therapeutic use of oils plus daily breakfast during a two-night stay (starting at $598, plus tax and fees). It's available now through Feb. 16 only.
